5:00 pm
Picnic in the Plaza featuring entertainment by Rachel Williams
Miller Campus Center

A lot of country music fans heard Rachel for the first time on the USA Network's Nashville Star 2 television program, where she was one of the top 15 contestants nationwide. After her success with Nashville Star 2, the next step was natural: Rachel released her own debut CD, First Day Of The Truth, on Regaltone Records. Produced in Nashville at a top studio with A-list musicians, this CD allows Rachel to show off the kind of music that she likes best, rockin', in-your-face country.

With every performance, the ranks of Rachel's fans have increased. She has proven her appeal to large, live audiences, getting a great response opening for national acts such as Trace Adkins, Mark Chesnutt, Diamond Rio, Emerson Drive, Sammy Kershaw, Ronnie Milsap, Dan Seals and Clay Walker. When Rachel and her band opened for Wynonna, the audience was out of their seats and going wild. After just one set, a lot of Wynonna fans were Rachel Williams fans, too. The Rachel Williams show is free but the picnic dinner will cost $9.00.

6:00 pm
Gospel Choir Performance
Kingston Theater

Join the SUNY Canton Gospel Choir as they perform their annual showcase of great gospel music. These anointed voices will be sure to impress!

7:00 pm
Willie & Co. Show
Kingston Theater

That Willie, a personality unto himself. He is the star! ~ If you don't believe it....ASK HIM! He loves the ladies, torments the men, charms the children and steals everyone's heart. He has tremendous wit, an appreciation for his audience, patriotism, humility and a strong dedication to his lifetime friend and mentor, Peggy Miller. Peggy is the voice behind Willie; as well as Great Great Granny Gardner and Willie's little cousin, Hannah. She is a ventriloquist with the unique ability to make the audience forget that it is she who is talking and singing. It won't take long to notice that Willie's ability to steal the show is a credit to Peggy's remarkable talent and technique. She has earned the respect from many audiences and fellow professionals. You'll have to agree - she's extraordinary!

8:00 pm
The Amazing Sandman Dan Sanders
Kingston Theater

Dan Sanders is a shining star in the art of hypnosis comedy. Audiences everywhere have witnessed his artful application of hypnotic suggestion with fascinating and hilarious results. This spellbinding show is full of high energy fun as Dan unleashes the imagination with amazing results.
