

Minor in Writing and Communication

The Minor in Writing and Communication trains students in the communication skills sought by employers and necessary for responsible citizenship. The coordinator will work with you to tailor a minor appropriate to your degree program, career plans, and personal interests.

Students will take a minimum of six of the courses designated below, with at least one course from each of the three areas:

Minor Requirements
Course Number	Course Name	Credits	Term	Grade
HUMANITIES
ENGL 202	Creative Non-Fiction	Three (3)
ENGL 221	Creative Writing	Three (3)
ENGL 310	Writing Your Life: Form & Function in Memoirs	Three (3)
ENGL 315	Short Fiction: The Art of the Tale	Three (3)
HUMA 189	Acting and Improvisation	Three (3)
ARTS 201	Art History: BC to 16 th Century	Three (3)
ARTS 202	Art History: 16 th to 20 th Century	Three (3)
SPCH 104	Introduction to Speech	Three (3)
VISUAL COMMUNICATION
NEW MEDIA
GMMD 102	Introduction to Design	Three (3)
GMMD 330	Web Design and Development	Three (3)
GMMD 409	Issues in New Media Journalism	Three (3)
CITA 112	Introduction to Electronic Presentations	One (1)
BUSINESS/PROFESSIONS
BSAD 340	Management Communications	Three (3)
ENGL 301	Professional Writing and Communication	Three(3)
ENGL 309	Journalism	Three (3)
LEST 330	Legal Writing	Three (3)

Twelve of the eighteen credits for a minor MUST be SUNY Canton credit. Students can use six credits of transfer toward a minor.