ACADEMIC HERALDRY

Macebearer

The origin of the mace can be traced to the early 17th century when it appeared at Oxford and Cambridge Universities. Traditionally borne by the senior-most member of the college faculty, the mace symbolizes academic freedom, excellence, and institutional authority.

Cords, Stoles, Medallions, and Pins

Graduates who are members of a recognized Honor Society, Service Members, Student Athletes, and/or recipients of academic or excellence awards have the opportunity to wear accessories, such as cords, stoles, medallions*, and pins, that acknowledge their membership and/or honor. Signifying items vary and are specific to the organization or group.

**Different from the medallions gifted by the Alumni Association.*

Caps, Gowns, and Hoods

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students of those days wore them to keep warm in the damp and drafty 12th century castles and halls of learning.

The gowns for the bachelor's degree, earned after undergraduate study, have a semistiff yoke, long pleated front and intricate shirring across the shoulders and back. The bachelor's gown is primarily distinguished by its long, pointed sleeves.

The holder of the master's degree, earned by postgraduate work, wears a gown with the same yoke effect as the bachelor's and the very long sleeve is square and closed at the end, the forearm coming through a slit near the elbow.

Gowns for the doctorate's degree carry broad velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on the full, round, open sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color distinctive of the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

Caps may be a serge, broadcloth or, for the doctorate's outfit only, of velvet; the tassel of the doctorate's cap may be of gold bullion.

It is the hood that gives color and real meaning to the academic costume. A black shell, of varying size for the three degrees, and of material to match the gown, is silk-lined with the color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. The hood is then bordered with velvet of the proper width to indicate the degree and of the color signifying the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

It is important to note that the field of learning governs the color that is proper for the velvet of the hood. Thus a degree conferred as "bachelor of science in engineering" requires the golden yellow of science and not the orange of engineering. Similarly, the doctor of philosophy degree requires blue velvet, irrespective of the major field. If more than one degree is held, the gown and hood of the highest degree are worn.

The colored silk lining of the hood tells which college granted the degree.

The colors indicative of the various fields of learning are as follows:

Arts and Letters .....	White	Veterinary Science .....	Gray	Science .....	Golden Yellow
Theology .....	Scarlet	Fine Arts .....	Brown	Physical Education ...	Sage Green
Laws.....	Purple	Music .....	Pink	Humanities.....	Crimson
Philosophy .....	Blue	Library Science.....	Lemon	Oratory .....	Silver Gray
Engineering.....	Orange	Pedagogy.....	Light Blue	Public Health.....	Salmon
Medicine .....	Green	Forestry.....	Russet	Agriculture .....	Maize
Pharmacy .....	Olive	Commerce.....	Drab	Economics.....	Copper
Dentistry .....	Lilac	Public Administration....	Peacock	Technology.....	Gold

DAVID R. MAYNARD STUDENT ACTIVITIES AWARD

Lydia J. Austin '26

Lydia is a Graphic and Multimedia Design graduate who has made a significant impact on the campus community through her involvement with the College Activities Board (CAB) and numerous clubs.

As Vice President for CAB, she has planned and organized many events, led a small team, and promoted activities through weekly communications. Lydia has served as the Marketing, Media, and Advertising Assistant for the Student Activities, Involvement, and Leadership Office (SAIL). She is also the editor of the SUNY Canton Paysonian Yearbook and is on the Campus Safety Committee.

Lydia has worked in the SAIL Office since her first year at SUNY Canton. Her favorite events are craft nights and CAB's Grocery Bingo Events. She loves watching students become so passionate about winning. She also enjoys watching students get involved and develop a stronger interest in their campus community.

“Even when she's not working, she spends hours of her own personal time in the SAIL Office making sure CAB initiatives are proceeding smoothly,” Assistant Director of SAIL Senanu Essegbey said. “The effort she puts forth into these positions is a testament to her passion and her desire to create community among SUNY Canton students nationwide.”

Following graduation, Lydia plans to seek employment in her field of study and continue growing her business, Lydia Austin Photography.

CHANCELLOR'S AWARD FOR STUDENT EXCELLENCE

Natalie N. Baxter '26

Natalie is a Health & Fitness Promotion major with a minor in Applied Psychology who has expertly balanced campus involvement, academics, and athletics.

She was a student-athlete for the women's lacrosse team, President of the Outdoor Adventure Club, Athletic Training Assistant, and a Special Olympics volunteer. Most recently, she served as a Senior Student Ambassador for the Office of Admissions, a Presidential Intern Lab Assistant, and an Academic Recovery Mentor.

Her professors and supervisors describe her as someone who is very involved on campus and sets a high bar for herself.

“Natalie has continuously been a steadfast role model regarding dedication, reliability, work ethic, work quality, responsibility, and has demonstrated exceptional leadership capabilities,” said Associate Professor Janet Parcell, the lead faculty member in the Health & Fitness Promotion program. “She has always been an impressive student who consistently submits work that performs at the top of her cohort.”

She has been accepted into Clarkson University's Doctor of Physical Therapy program.

CHANCELLOR'S AWARD FOR STUDENT EXCELLENCE

Richard H. Haller '26

Richard is a Digital Communications & Storytelling graduate with a minor in sociology whose dedication, curiosity, and integrity reflect the very best of what it means to be a SUNY Canton student.

His professors describe him as someone who is always willing to take on challenges and help others.

“Mr. Haller is one of the most promising students that I have seen throughout my teaching career,” said Associate Professor Phil LaMarche, who serves as the Humanities Department Chair. “Through our time together, I have come to see that Richard is eager and self-motivated with an intellect and maturity that consistently elevates the work of everyone around him.”

Over his four years, he has earned President's List honors every semester. He also has consistently received the award for the highest GPA in his major. He was a recipient of the prestigious Robert McKenty and Family Annual Scholarship, which is awarded to students who embody academic excellence and leadership potential.

He has interned with North Country Public Radio (NCPR) in Canton for three semesters, where he writes and produces news feature stories for broadcast, web publication, and social media distribution.

Richard is considering a career in journalism.

BACCALAUREATE LEVEL

Sydney P. Valiquette '26

Sydney is a Forensic Criminology graduate with a minor in Applied Psychology who has demonstrated strong leadership and deep campus involvement while balancing the demands of being a student-athlete.

Sydney has been involved in Academic Recovery as a Peer Mentor, in EOP as a tutor, and in the Student Athletic Advisory Committee. She also volunteered for Special Olympics events and “Help Sami Kick Cancer” fundraisers.

Sydney previously earned an Associate Degree in Criminal Justice in 2024 and earned the highest GPA in her major that same year. She has consistently earned President’s List honors and is one of three honors students in the Class of 2026.

“Sydney is an exemplar for her peers in terms of how to get the most out of a college career,” Associate Professor Barat Wolfe said. “She leads from the front, asking the most of herself and inspiring others to do their best, too.”

She has completed advanced projects on topics including Mental Illness in the Criminal Justice System and advanced-level analysis of a Criminal Investigative Analysis report.

“Sydney's character and integrity stand out,” Professor of Practice Alan Mulkin said. “She demonstrates accountability in her responsibilities and takes pride in the quality of her work. Sydney's ability to communicate effectively and work well with others makes her someone whom students, faculty, and staff respect and trust.”

She played defense for the Roos Women's Hockey team and served as the Women's Hockey Captain for three seasons. During her four years of play, Sydney competed in 98 games, tallying 29 points and 25 assists.

Following graduation, Sydney plans to attend law school.

ASSOCIATE LEVEL

Allison J.P. Bickford '26

Allison is a Physical Therapist Assistant graduate who has demonstrated exceptional academic achievement while successfully balancing athletic commitments.

During her education, she has earned President's List and Dean's List honors, received an award for highest GPA in her major, and was named to the SUNYAC Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll during the 2024-2025 season.

"Allison has demonstrated perseverance in her first two years at SUNY Canton," Professor and PTA Director Deborah Molnar said. "She has a very strong work ethic and can be counted on to follow through on her commitments."

She has done clinicals at Jill Robertson Physiotherapy and Consulting and Claxton Hepburn Medical Center.

"Allison is a diligent and dedicated PTA student," Professor Jennifer McDonald said. "She is consistently proactive in ensuring that she is meeting all academic requirements when she is out of class for hockey travel and games. She consistently received positive feedback from both her clinical instructor and her patients."

Allison finished her second year as a forward with Roos Women's Hockey team. She has also helped with the Special Olympics, taught exercises to older adults, and spent time skating with area children.

Allison plans to continue her studies at SUNY Canton to earn a Bachelor's Degree in Health & Fitness Promotion.

NORMAN R. McCONNERY, JR. AWARD FOR STUDENT EXCELLENCE

Madison J. Parker '26

Madison is a Nursing graduate who earned statewide recognition for her elite-level work ethic.

She is one of only 49 Educational Opportunity Program (EOP) scholars throughout SUNY who were selected to receive this year's honor, which SUNY created in memory of Norman R. McConney, Jr., a graduate of the University of Albany and former SUNY Assistant Dean for Special Programs. He and former Assembly Deputy Speaker Arthur O. Eve created EOP in 1967 to assist students from underprivileged backgrounds.

Madison's strong commitment to learning and personal growth is well recognized within Canton's EOP Office, where she has earned the respect of counselors and professional staff.

"I have seen firsthand how hard she works, how committed she is to her future profession as a nurse, and how compassionate she is in all of her interactions," said EOP Program Director Matthew McCluskey. "The McConney Award seeks to recognize students with deep resilience, grit, and commitment. Nominating Madison was an easy choice."

She has earned either President's or Dean's List academic honors throughout her education. She has worked with peers in the EOP program as a tutor for several nursing classes and is a certified nursing assistant in the medical-surgical unit at Canton-Potsdam Hospital. Previously, she worked as a direct support professional with United Helpers in Rensselaer Falls and as a manager at Maple Ridge Kennels.

Madison plans to continue in the Bachelor of Science in Nursing with a minor in Applied Psychology.

CLASS OF 2026

LEAF AND PARALLELOGRAM

The College emblem consists of a green leaf and blue parallelogram. The leaf represents life, growth, and sustainability. The parallelogram symbolizes the symmetry and exactness of technology.

THE MACE

The mace is a symbol of dignity and authority that the senior-most faculty member carries at formal ceremonies, convocations, and commencements.

President Emeritus Earl W. MacArthur inspired the College's current mace. Professor Emeritus John G. Boyden and Dale G. Fockler worked with students to design and construct it in 1981. Area companies, including Alcoa and Corning, donated the materials.

Each portion of the 29-inch tall scepter is symbolic of SUNY Canton. The arch at the top represents the overriding authority of the College president. The crystal inset bears the College logo, consisting of a leaf and parallelogram. The chrome studs inset into the copper bowl represent the academic departments of 1981.

It is said that the mace is a mobile time capsule and that students may have inserted materials into the hollow shaft when it was being assembled. Those contents will only be revealed if the mace is ever dismantled for service or redesign.

MEDALLIONS

The commemorative medallion given to each graduate is sponsored by the SUNY Canton Alumni Association and serves as a symbol of the students' entry into the ranks of more than 40,000 alumni. When students look at the medallion, they can reflect on how important SUNY Canton will be to their future and to their success.
