ACADEMIC HERALDRY

Macebearer

The origin of the mace can be traced to the early 17th century when it appeared at Oxford and Cambridge Universities. Traditionally borne by the senior-most member of the college faculty, the mace symbolizes academic freedom, excellence, and institutional authority.

SUNY Canton Cords and Stoles

Graduates wearing white cords were recognized at Honors Convocation for having earned the highest grade point average within their curriculum. The other cords or stoles signify that the graduate is a member of an academic honor society.

The Red, White, and Blue cords signify that the student is currently serving or has served in the United States Military.

Caps, Gowns, and Hoods

The caps, gowns, and hoods worn at college and university functions date back to the Middle Ages. Monks and students of those days wore them to keep warm in the damp and drafty 12th century castles and halls of learning. The gowns for the bachelor's degree, earned after undergraduate study, have a semistiff yoke, long pleated front and intricate shirring across the shoulders and back. The bachelor's gown is primarily distinguished by its long, pointed sleeves.

The holder of the master's degree, earned by postgraduate work, wears a gown with the same yoke effect as the bachelor's and the very long sleeve is square and closed at the end, the forearm coming through a slit near the elbow.

Gowns for the doctorate's degree carry broad velvet panels down the front and three velvet bars on the full, round, open sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color distinctive of the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

Caps may be a serge, broadcloth or, for the doctorate's outfit only, of velvet; the tassel of the doctorate's cap may be of gold bullion.

It is the hood that gives color and real meaning to the academic costume. A black shell, of varying size for the three degrees, and of material to match the gown, is silk-lined with the color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. The hood is then bordered with velvet of the proper width to indicate the degree and of the color signifying the field of learning to which the degree pertains.

It is important to note that the field of learning governs the color that is proper for the velvet of the hood. Thus a degree conferred as "bachelor of science in engineering" requires the golden yellow of science and not the orange of engineering. Similarly, the doctor of philosophy degree requires blue velvet, irrespective of the major field. If more than one degree is held, the gown and hood of the highest degree are worn.

The colored silk lining of the hood tells which college granted the degree.

The colors indicative of the various fields of learning are as follows:

Arts and Letters White
Theology Scarlet
Laws Purple
Philosophy Blue
Engineering Orange
Medicine Green
Pharmacy Olive
Dentistry Lilac

Veterinary Science Gray
Fine Arts Brown
Music Pink
Library Science Lemon
Pedagogy Light Blue
Forestry Russet
Commerce Drab
Public Administration.... Peacock

Science Golden Yellow
Physical Education ... Sage Green
Humanities Crimson
Oratory Silver Gray
Public Health Salmon
Agriculture Maize
Economics Copper
Technology Gold

DAVID R. MAYNARD STUDENT ACTIVITIES AWARD

Cassidy Asiamah '25

Cassidy is an Early Childhood Studies graduate who has made a significant impact on the campus community through her involvement in student government and numerous clubs and organizations.

As President of African Student Union, the Sister 2 Sister club, and Road 2 Riches club, she has organized many events, namely several fashion shows, that were among the most well-attended student activities of the year.

Cassidy became further involved by running for, and being elected as, Student Government Association Budget Director two years in a row.

“She is a very good steward of the students' money and approaches all her responsibilities with careful consideration and consistent communication,” said Assistant Director of the Student Activities, Involvement and Leadership Office Robert Bruce. “Cassidy has left a mark on this school, and I believe her contributions make her the best candidate for this award.”

Beyond her extracurricular work, she has served as a Resident Assistant and Peer Mentor, was selected as a Presidential Intern, and is active in the Educational Opportunity Program. She was chosen as the 2022 SUNY Canton Outstanding Baccalaureate Graduate upon earning a prior degree in Criminal Investigation and minor in Forensic Science.

Cassidy has been accepted into the Columbia School of Nursing's Masters Direct Entry Program and aspires to be a Pediatric Nurse Practitioner.

Her professors and coaches describe her as a model of leadership and dedication.

“Sarah helped elevate the standards of her class,” said Associate Professor Dr. Janet L. Parcell, PT, DPT, ATC, CSCS, lead faculty member for the Health and Fitness Promotion program. “She is responsible, dependable, caring, and has the vital ability to not only be smart on paper; she can also apply her knowledge to real life outside of a textbook.”

An outstanding two-sport athlete in Volleyball and Softball, Sarah has earned multiple All-Academic team honors. She was named a National Fastpitch Coaches Association Scholar-Athlete.

She served her campus community as a Peer Mentor and a Special Olympics volunteer.

Following graduation, Sarah will continue her studies at SUNY Cortland.

CHANCELLOR'S AWARD FOR STUDENT EXCELLENCE

Sonia is a Health Care Management graduate who has demonstrated excellence in academics, leadership, and community service.

While studying full-time and earning President's and Dean's List honors, she has simultaneously been employed full-time as a Ward Clerk with the Northwell Health System.

In addition to excelling in coursework related to health services management, public health issues, and legal and ethical issues in healthcare, she completed an internship at New York-Presbyterian Hospital's Women's Health Center. Inspired by a strong desire to help others, Sonia is pursuing a future in hospital leadership.

“Sonia’s leadership qualities and community service make her truly exceptional,” said Associate Director of Career Services and Internship Programs Kathryn L. Kennedy. “She has spent many late nights and personal time supporting people in need. Sonia is one of the unsung heroes in our world, and I am so proud to know her.”

Sonia has led numerous community initiatives, including clothing, coat, food, and toy drives that supported families in both New York and Guyana. Her efforts abroad included mobilizing local resources to assist those in need. She credits these experiences with teaching her the value of strategic planning, communication, and teamwork. In recognition of her service, she received the 2023 Martin Luther King Jr. Award for Outstanding Community Service from Northwell Health.

Following graduation, Sonia plans to continue her education to earn a Master of Business Administration.

Natalie E. Bartle '25

Natalie is an Applied Psychology graduate and mental health awareness advocate who has conducted scholarly research about student wellness.

She presented her study “Sport Psychology Experiences and Interests Among SUNY Canton Athletes” at the 2024 SUNY Undergraduate Research Conference and completed a follow-up study in 2025 titled “Evaluating the Effectiveness of Campus Interventions for Student-Athletes.”

“Natalie has been a key player in helping to establish mental health and sport psychology resources on campus,” said Applied Psychology Associate Professor Barat Wolfe, Ph.D. “As a direct result of her advocacy, we were able to establish a dedicated Counseling Office liaison for athletics, as well as bring experts to campus to speak to student-athletes.”

She has maintained a 3.9 GPA, is a recipient of the Stanley Cohen Endowed Scholarship, and served as a Captain on the Women's Basketball team.

Natalie led the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) in scoring during the 2024-2025 season, averaging 14.8 points per game and 3.8 steals. She had one of the most prolific single games in SUNY Canton history in 2023, scoring a career-high 46 points and adding a career-best 26 rebounds in a 74-72 win versus Clarkson. Her accolades include being named to D3hoops.com All-Region Second Team and First Team All-SUNYAC.

“She is one of the most talented players to ever play for this program and is a relentless worker,” said Head Women's Basketball Coach Chris Klassen. “Watching her dedication and determination has been inspiring to not only me, but to our team as well.”

Natalie previously received a bachelor's degree from SUNY Canton in Health and Fitness Promotion and plans to continue her education in sports psychology.

Eli has been a cornerstone of leadership and community-building on campus, while excelling academically.

As a Mechatronics major with minors in Mathematics and Applied Physics, he has maintained a 3.95 GPA and earned multiple President's List honors. He was also selected by the Dean of Students to receive the 2022-2023 Leaders of Tomorrow Award.

In addition to academics, Eli has distinguished himself through his professional roles. As an Equipment Engineer Intern and independent contractor at Corning Inc., he supported plantwide equipment breakdowns and process improvements, showcasing his aptitude for hands-on problem-solving and innovation.

On campus, Eli served as an Interim Residence Hall Director, supervising 120 students and leading a team of Resident Assistants. He is the President and Founder of Axios at Canton, a Christian club that hosts Bible study gatherings and organizes community outreach initiatives that emphasize compassion and inclusivity.

His commitment to excellence extends to athletics, where he is a standout member of the Men's Basketball team. His accolades include being named to the North Atlantic Conference All-Academic Team and being selected as the NAC Defensive Player of the Week.

NORMAN R. McCONNEY, JR. AWARD FOR STUDENT EXCELLENCE

Kylee M. Donnelly '25

Kylee is an Applied Psychology graduate who has earned this statewide award for her exceptional academic performance and perseverance.

She is one of only 50 Educational Opportunity Program (EOP) scholars throughout SUNY who were selected to receive this year's honor, which was created by SUNY in memory of Norman R. McConney, Jr., a graduate of the University of Albany and former SUNY Assistant Dean for Special Programs. He and former Assembly Deputy Speaker Arthur O. Eve created EOP in 1967 to assist students from underprivileged backgrounds.

Kylee is highly determined and has exceptional listening and communication skills, according to SUNY Canton EOP Program Director Matthew D. McCluskey.

"In my first year as director, I have felt moved by her professionalism, engagement, and warmth," McCluskey said. "She has a very bright future, and I feel privileged to have been able to join her for a small part of her journey. Kylee is a deeply positive presence in our office and reflects the high hopes of EOP."

In addition to being a co-founder of the EOP club and an intern with the SUNY Canton Personal Counseling Center, she's worked as a home health aide in Massena for the last two years.

Kylee plans to enter the mental health field following graduation.

LEAF AND PARALLELOGRAM

The College emblem consists of a green leaf and blue parallelogram. The leaf represents life, growth, and sustainability. The parallelogram symbolizes the symmetry and exactness of technology.

THE MACE

The mace is a symbol of dignity and authority that the senior-most faculty member carries at formal ceremonies, convocations, and commencements.

President Emeritus Earl W. MacArthur inspired the College's current mace. Professor Emeritus John G. Boyden and Dale G. Fockler worked with students to design and construct it in 1981. Area companies, including Alcoa and Corning, donated the materials.

Each portion of the 29-inch tall scepter is symbolic of SUNY Canton. The arch at the top represents the overriding authority of the College president. The crystal inset bears the College logo, consisting of a leaf and parallelogram. The chrome studs inset into the copper bowl represent the academic departments of 1981.

It is said that the mace is a mobile time capsule and that students may have inserted materials into the hollow shaft when it was being assembled. Those contents will only be revealed if the mace is ever dismantled for service or redesign.

MEDALLIONS

The commemorative medallion given to each graduate is sponsored by the SUNY Canton Alumni Association and serves as a symbol of the students' entry into the ranks of more than 40,000 alumni. When students look at the medallion, they can reflect on how important SUNY Canton will be to their future and to their success.
