

St. Lawrence County Family Child Care Training Program

A professional pathway to establishing a Family Child Care business.

Program Highlights:

- ✓ Mentorship Throughout Program

St. Lawrence Child Care Council

SLCCC Contact: Bruce Stewart, slccc@nynymail.com

- ✓ Guidance with the NYS FCC Application Process
- ✓ Regulations and Licensing Assistance

Small Business Development Center

SBDC Contact: Dale Rice, riced@canton.edu

- ✓ Personalized Business Counseling
- ✓ Workshops and Training:
 - Intro to Entrepreneurship, Business Planning, Bookkeeping Essentials, Managing Risk, Marketing Your Family Child Care Business, Building Wealth

SUNY Canton Early Childhood Program

SUNY Canton Contact: Maureen Maiocco, maiocco@canton.edu

- ✓ Enrollment in 3-credit Early Childhood online course

Participants who successfully complete the FCCTP attend at NO COST and are eligible for up to $1,500 in start-up funding!

Enroll by April 30th for FCCTP 2023!

To learn more and get started, contact:

Katy.Pinkerton@ocfs.ny.gov

Becky.Stewart@ocfs.ny.gov

Renee.Armstrong@ocfs.ny.gov

Phone: (315) 393-6474, ext. 17

Registrations are accepted on an ongoing basis from committed participants.

Space is limited to ensure program quality, so apply now.

ABOUT FCCTP

A collaborative grant-funded initiative made possible through the support of the St. Lawrence County Legislature with program funding from the American Rescue Plan to meet the high demand and need for childcare in St. Lawrence County.

OUR FCCTP PARTNERS

St. Lawrence Child Care Council
Small Business Development Center
SUNY Canton Early Childhood Program
SLC Industrial Development Agency
SLC Workforce Development Board
New York Power Authority
SLC Board of Legislators

OUR MISSION

St. Lawrence County FCCTP Partners are committed to supporting our local economic development, assisting working families, and supporting future Family Child Care small business owners, while ensuring access to high quality childcare options for children and families in communities in St. Lawrence County.

