JUDICIAL REVIEW FORM FOR STUDY ABROAD

The State University of New York requires a judicial review of all applicants for its study abroad programs. It is necessary for us to be informed of any judicial record that exists for any participant. The existence of judicial records at the participant's home university does not necessarily mean denial of admission to a program; however, the information must be reviewed by the Study Abroad Office on the campus responsible for the program in order for a determination to be made. Each applicant, regardless of home campus, is required to provide this authorization even if there is no judicial record. Students must also inform their home campus Study Abroad Office about their intention to study abroad.
