CANTON
STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

Natasha Marrero – Keppis ‘27

Manhattan, New York

My name is Natasha, and I am a junior majoring in Criminal Investigation. I am from New York City, and my family is originally from the Dominican Republic. On campus, I serve as the Senior RA at Kennedy Hall, Student Government Budget Director, an assistant for the Marketing, Media, and Advertising team in the S.A.I.L office, and a Student Ambassador. With all of these roles, I stay very involved on campus and take pride in what I do.

I chose to commit to SUNY Canton because of the strong hands-on learning opportunities. Coming from New York City, adjusting to life in the North Country was definitely a culture shock, but this campus has truly become my second home. I enjoy spending time outside, trying new things, and when I feel homesick, I love cooking traditional Dominican food that connects me back to my roots. Canton has

As a Criminal Investigation student, most of my classes are in person and hands-on. My favorite so far has been Forensic Photography, where I learned how to capture detailed photos of crime scenes and evidence. All of my professors are knowledgeable, supportive, and experienced, which makes my overall educational experience a true 10/10.

GREAT MAJORS, GREAT CAREERS.
