

Micro Course Monday – Sustainable or Just Plain Cheap?

Micro Course	Sustainable or Just Plain Cheap?
Date	Monday, March 24th
Time	3:00-4:00pm
In-Person Location	Dana Hall 228 – campus map – parking in lot 5
Online Link	Live online in Collaborate
Presenter	Brandon Baldwin

Sustainability can be seen as being cheap because saving energy is also saving money. We will have Sustainability Bingo to help you learn more ways to save your energy as well as help the planet. Be inspired and empowered to combat the global climate crisis through sustainability across the North Country.

Still interested in the topic?

If you want to learn more about solar and sustainability, consider enrolling in the Sustainability Series non-credit microcredentials for EPA 608, EV Maintenance, Heat Pump Training, and Solar Training. Sign up for all or just the ones that interest you!